is through prayers, the foundation of Islam is Namaz, the difference between a Muslim and a non-Muslim is Namaz, to explain the importance he quoted few Hadith, quotes of Hadhrat Messiah Maud (as) and from the Khulafa of Ahmadiyyat.

Next was another interactive session on the “Education of Children” this session was conduction by Boujamaa el Hadouchi sahib, he told the attendees that we live in the western hemisphere of the world, where children are taught at schools to accept things based on logic, therefore it is important for parents to guide their children to wards Islamic values, this is no Tarbiyyat of child to tell him that because Islam say so, or because I say so, this is only possible when parents themselves know those logical answers, and that will only come with Talim, parents must be confident of their beliefs, parents must know if they do certain Islamic things then why they do it, its not enough that because its an Islamic teaching, remember every Islamic teaching has a reason behind it.

Qaid sahib Tarbiyyat, Mohammad Afzal Malhi explains the “7 Levels of faith with regard to the observance of prayers” as defined in the Holy Quran, he narrated how the performance of the prayers increases the levels of faith and strengthen the faith. The Annual Tarbiyyat Plan was also presented.

The last presentation was from the Qaid Talim, Abdul Wasih Mubashir, who spoke on the topic of “Books of Promised Messiah (as) and their importance in an Ahmadi's life”. He quoted a wish of Promised Messiah (as) and ask all those present “how are we going to fulfil the wish of Promised Messiah (as) in which he says:

The community shall be a lighthouse so high as to illuminate the four corners of the world, the members thereof shall serve as a model of Islamic Blessings.

We should ask ourselves have we even achieved a height with which we can illuminate our block, our street, and we all together the country in which we live. How close are we to the wish of Promised Messiah as..

He said that the first commandment to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet (saw) was Aqra , so from here we should realized the importance of reading and that the reading improves our Talim, which leads a better Tarbiyyat automatically for you and your families, and give you a confidence to engage in Tablighi activities, so remember the root word is Aqra.
